

Fabric Repairs

Repairing any type of interior damage will not only improve the appearance of your vehicle, but also adds value.

Repairing any type of interior damage will not only improve the appearance of your vehicle, but will also add value to it. The problem with rips and burns in upholstery is that they keep on ripping, and they get worse!

When selling your vehicle, failure to repair any rips or burns in the upholstery will probably result in a reduction of the sale price. Anybody selling a car is trying to make as much money as they possibly can. Upholstery repairs are relatively inexpensive; therefore, why not improve your chance of a higher resale value by taking advantage of our service. FROM ONLY £25.00! More Information? Please call us for more information on these services 0800 0854132.